

THE CONFESSION OF SIN

Our great and glorious God, You who know and judge the secrets of every human heart; We do acknowledge and confess that we have followed our father Adam in revolting against your commandments. We have turned from your ways and from your blessed Presence, and have reaped the misery of turning away from You, the very Author of life. None of us is righteous, no not one; None of us has understanding, none of us seeks God; Our throats are opened graves; we use our tongues to deceive; Our mouths are full of cursing and bitterness; Our feet are swift to shed blood; ruin and misery are in our paths, and the way of peace we have not known; There is no fear of God before our eyes. We appeal to you, through your great mercy made manifest in Jesus Christ Your obedient Son, that you would forgive our sins for His sake; That you would make many righteous through His one act of obedience; That where our sin has increased, Your grace would abound. Just as Christ was raised from the dead by your glory, so also may we walk in newness of life. Amen.

THE ASSURANCE OF PARDON

For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified by his grace as a gift, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus, whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God's righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins. It was to show his righteousness at the present time, so that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus. (Romans 3:23-26)

*THE PSALM NO. 72:18-19....."O God, Your Judgments Give the King" (stanza 4)

Psalm 72: "O God, Your Judgments Give the King"

1. O God, your judgments give the King, his son your righteousness;
 2. The people's poor ones he shall judge, the needy's children bless;
 3. His large and great dominion shall from sea to sea extend;
 4. Now blessed be the Lord our God, the God of Israel, with right he shall your people judge, your poor with uprightness.

 and he will break in pieces those who would oppress the poor.
 it from the river shall reach forth to earth's remotest end.
 for he alone does wondrous works in glory that excel.

And then the mountains shall bring forth to all the people peace;
 The just shall flourish in his days, and prosper in his reign;
 Yea, kings shall all before him bow, all nations shall obey;
 And blessed be his glorious name to all eternity.

the hills because of righteousness their blessing shall increase.
 and while the moon endures he shall abundant peace maintain.
 he'll save the needy when they cry, the poor who have no stay.
 The whole earth let his glory fill; amen, so let it be.

THE CONFESSION OF FAITH.....Westminster Larger Catechism No. 168

Q. What is the Lord's Supper?

A. The Lord's supper is a sacrament of the New Testament, in which, by giving and receiving bread and wine according to the institution of Jesus Christ, his death is showed forth; and they who faithfully commune feed upon his body and blood, to their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace; have their union and communion with him confirmed; testify and renew their thankfulness, and engagement to God, and their mutual love and fellowship each with the other, as members of the same mystical body.

THE INVITATION TO CHRIST'S TABLE

THE LAW OF GOD

Hear the words of our Lord Jesus Christ: “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the great and first commandment. And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.” (Matt. 22:37-40)
