God's People Confess Their Faith: WLC 167

Q. How is our baptism to be improved by us?

A. The needful but much neglected duty of improving our baptism, is to be performed by us all our life long, especially in the time of temptation, and when we are present at the administration of it to others; by serious and thankful consideration of the nature of it and of the ends for which Christ instituted it, the privileges and benefits conferred and sealed, and our solemn vow made therein; by being humbled for our sinful defilement, our falling short of and walking contrary to the grace of baptism; by growing up to assurance of pardon of sin, and of all other blessings sealed to us in that sacrament; by drawing strength from the death and resurrection of Christ, into whom we are baptized, for the killing of sin, and enlivening of grace; and by endeavoring to live by faith, to have our conversation in holiness and righteousness, as those that have therein given up their names to Christ; and to walk in brotherly love, as being baptized by the same Spirit into one body.

God Calls Us to Repentance: Isaiah 55:1-2

Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight you selves in rich food.

God's People Confess Their Sin

Almighty and Everlasting God, we praise You for making Yourself our Father, adopting us into Your household by ransoming us from our sin at the cost of Your most precious Son's holy blood, and demonstrating Your love for us while we were still sinners. Father You made known to us the abundance of Your mercy in the Covenant of Grace and assured us of pardon and cleansing in the waters of baptism. Please forgive us for neglecting to improve our baptism. We have not endeavored much at all to live by faith, and too often our conversation has not been characterized by holiness and righteousness, and we have weakly considered the privileges and benefits of Your covenant when we are being tempted. O Father, forgive us for our sinful defilement, forgive us for not striving to walk in brotherly love, and forgive us for cherishing the things of this world more than the heavenly inheritance of all Your people through Christ.

Silent Confession

God Assures Us of Forgiveness in Christ: Isaiah 55:7

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, that He may have compassion on him, and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon.

The LORD builds up Zion;
He appears in His glory;
He regards the prayer of the destitute
and does not despise their prayer.
Let this be recorded for a generation to come,
so that a people yet to be created may praise the LORD:
that He looked down from His holy height;
from heaven the LORD looked at the earth,
to hear the groans of the prisoners,
to set free those who were doomed to die,
that they may declare in Zion the name of the LORD,
and in Jerusalem His praise,
when peoples gather together,
and kingdoms, to worship the LORD.

(Psalm 102:16-22)
