

1. ¹O blest be the LORD God, my rock and my might;
2. ³O LORD, what is man that you rec - og - nize him,
3. ⁵Bend low your arched heav - ens, come, LORD, from on high,
4. ⁷O LORD, stretch your hand from the heav - ens a - bove;

he trains me for bat - tle, my hands for the fight.
the son of man that you are mind - ful of him?
and touch the great moun - tains, let smoke from them fly;
de - liv - er and save me from strang - ers and floods,

²My for - tress, de - liv - 'rer, my ref - uge and shield,
⁴For man is but va - por, his brief earth - ly days
⁶flash forth your fierce light - nings and scat - ter the foe,
⁸their tongues speak so false - ly and truth they de - spise,

he brings down my foes and be - neath me they yield.
are just like a shad - ow which pass - es a - way.
send out your sharp ar - rows and rout them in woe.
their right hand they hold forth to swear to their lies.
