

Psalm 76

Introduction

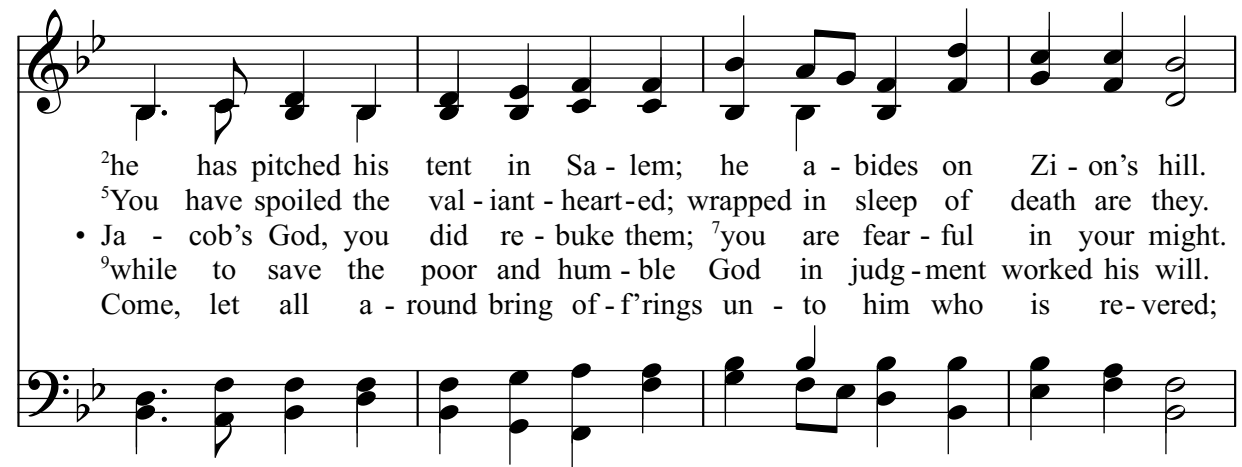

I. Main Argument

A. Godliness

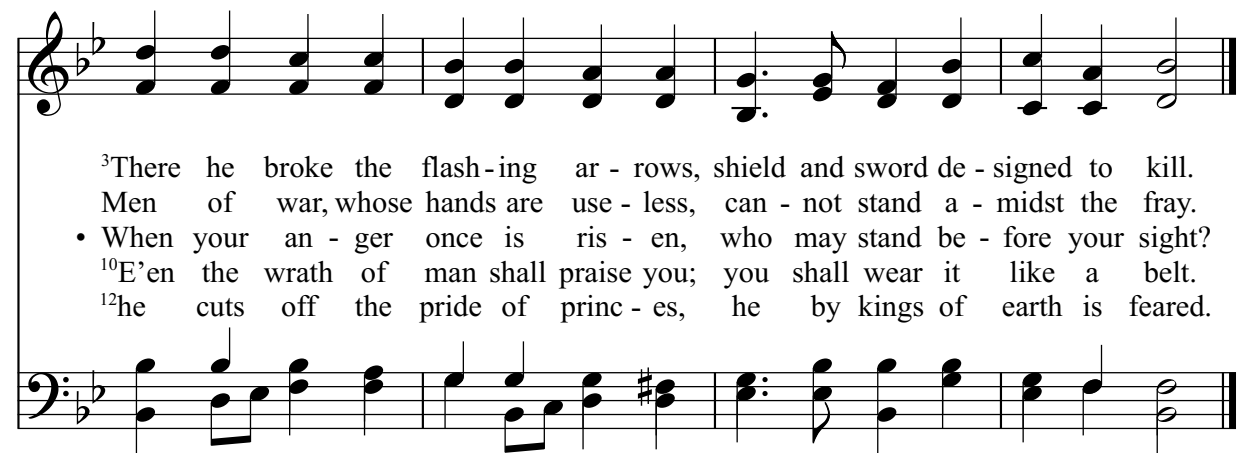

1. ¹God the Lord is known in Ju - dah; great his name in Is - ra - el;
 2. ⁴You are more ma - jes - tic, glo - rious, than the moun - tains full of prey.
 3. ⁶Horse and char - iot stunned are ly - ing in the sleep of death's dark night.
 4. ⁸When from heav'n you ut - tered judg - ment, all the earth in fear stood still,
 5. ¹¹Give the LORD your God your prom - ise, keep - ing all your vows sin - cere.

B. Truth

²he has pitched his tent in Sa - lem; he a - bides on Zi - on's hill.
⁵You have spoiled the val - iant - heart - ed; wrapped in sleep of death are they.
 • Ja - cob's God, you did re - buke them; ⁷you are fear - ful in your might.
⁹while to save the poor and hum - ble God in judg - ment worked his will.
 Come, let all a - round bring of - f'rings un - to him who is re - vered;

C. Revelation

³There he broke the flash - ing ar - rows, shield and sword de - signed to kill.
 Men of war, whose hands are use - less, can - not stand a - midst the fray.
 • When your an - ger once is ris - en, who may stand be - fore your sight?
¹⁰E'en the wrath of man shall praise you; you shall wear it like a belt.
¹²he cuts off the pride of princ - es, he by kings of earth is feared.

II. Conclusion

God Is Exalted in Psalm 76

Wil Davis

1. God’s name and place of dwelling are clearly manifested by His overwhelming crushing of the weapons of war brandished against His people. Our bearing Christ’s name and our being the residence of God’s Holy Spirit are evidence that any threats to our salvation have likewise been thoroughly vanquished.
2. God’s majesty is glorious, far beyond that of the most symbolic expression of a fulfilling existence. Those most likely to acquire a satisfying life through their strength and skills lie sleeping with useless faculties in comparison to Him.
3. The God of Jacob, when His anger is provoked, rightly strikes fear in the hearts of those whose god is not the LORD, seeing that they and their symbols of strength lie stupefied in His presence.
4. God’s judgment from heaven silences His foes, even using their wrath to bring Him glory, as He rescues the humble of the earth while His foes' rage becomes a garland for Him.
5. Reverence and fear and bringing offerings of time, talents, and treasures is the appropriate response to such a God. All others are left with only fear of Him.
